THE CENTURY MAGAZINE FOR JANUARY.

The third number of the new series of Scotchmen presents, as a frontispiece, a tint-printed engraving by Cole of Bonnat's portrait of Thiers, accompanying a paper of personal recollections of the first President of the French Republic, by E. B. Washburne, late United States Minister at Paris. Mrs. Mary Hallock Foote's second paper on Mexico, "The Caverns of Luray," by Ernest Ingersoll, is the first fully illustrated magazine paper that has appeared on the subterranean wonders of the newly discovered rival to the Mammoth cave. "The Revival of Burano Face. Specimens of lace work are also given for comparison. "Who were the Chartists?" by W. J. Linton (who was himself a Chartist), Colonel Rookwell's paper of reminiscences of Garfield, which it was not possible to prepare, as designed, for the December number, appears in the present issue under the caption "From Mentor to Elberon." With this paper is given an engraving by Krull of the Bierstadt artotype portrait, which is thought to supplement the Sarony picture engraved by Cole in the December number. The most elaborately illustrated paper of the number is Mrs. Lucy M. Mitchell's account of "Oriental and Early Greek Sculpture"—the first of several on ancient sculpture.

The unillustrated material is not less interesting in topic. Mrs. Burnett's "Through One Administration," Mr. Howells' "Modern Instance," "The Increase of Divorce," by Washington Gladden, "The Legal aspects of the Mormon problem" by Arthur G. Sedwick. John Burroughs contributes a comparison of "English and American song birds," "Old Madame," by Harriet Prescott Spofford. W. C. Wilkinson contributes a poem on Webster, entitled "The Farmer of Marshfield," and there are other poetic contributions by Celia Thaxter, T. H. Robertson, William Young, Minnie Irving and Robert U. Johnson.

In "Topics of the Time" there are papers on the spoils system ("New Patches on an Old Garment," and "Garfield on Civil Service Reform") besides "Communism in the Book Trade," "A Forgotten Obligation to the Ministry," and "The Good Natural Man." There is a communication from Mr. Whitier regarding the late Dr. Holland; a reply of James Parrott to a review of his "Voltaire," with a rejoinder from the writer of the review; letters concerning the spot where Pocahontas rescued Capt. Smith, and the horse-manship of the Prince Imperial; reviews of American history, and Books for Children; eight pieces of minor verse in bric-a-brac. The World's Work Department is given over to material about the Atlanta cotton exhibition, the result of the writer's personal inspection of the exhibits. The subjects treated are: Improved cotton planter, insect destroyer apparatus, gins and seed-cotton cleaners, gin saw sharpener, and new cotton bailing press.

A circular received at this office last night says the advertising firm of Freshman & Brothers, of Cincinnati, has failed for quite a sum of money. The firm has paid the GAZETTE large sums of money, and has always stood high, but a year or two of bad luck and heavy losses has involved them deeply. They are agents for Hostetter's Bitters, Ozone, Anakinis, and other goods. We hope to see them on their feet soon.

Land Purchase.

NEW ORLEANS, December 27. Phillips, Marshall & Co., of London, have just concluded the purchase of 1,300,000 acres of land from the State of Mississippi. Seven hundred and sixty thousand acres are known as levee lands, located mostly in Gazeo Delta, comprising some of the richest cotton and timber lands in the South. The intention is to improve, colonize and cultivate.

More to Come.

BERLIN, December 27. Emigration from Germany in '82 promises to become more colossal than in '81. Already 14,000 tickets have been sold for transportation in vessels leaving Bremen for America in the spring. Almost an equal number of emigrants will go from Hamburg.

Christmas Drifts.

WARSAW, December 27. Very serious rioting occurred Sunday. After the panic most of the Jewish liquor shops and many Jewish houses were sacked. The police were powerless. In many instances police were united in plundering drugshops. Six hundred arrests were made.

Press Dispatches to RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

THE MURDERER.

His Chances for a Long Lease of Life Fading Away—More Expert Testimony.

WASHINGTON, December 27.

The Court was densely packed this morning, and upon reaching his seat, Guiteau looked around smiling and said:

I had a nice Christmas dinner, and hope every one else did. I had lots of fruit, flowers and lady visitors, and a good time generally.

Dr. A. E. McDonald, Superintendent of the Woods' Island Insane Hospital testified that during his practice he had had six thousand cases of insanity, and had given special attention to the study of insanity. He stated the difference between delusions and insane delusions, one being the subject of correction by the judgment and the senses, the latter not being correctable, and for that reason, denominated an insane delusion, also illusions and hallucinations, giving illustrations from his own experience.

He believed, judging from experience, that the claims of inspirations frequently asserted by insane persons proceeding from the source of hallucination or insane delusion affecting the senses. Witness was then asked: If a person's actions, under claim of inspiration, would indicate it under any other way than by their assertions?

His answer was: "Their actions and behavior would indicate it as well as their assertion. To illustrate it: A person claiming to be Jesus Christ, and acting under inspiration, clothed himself like the Saviour, gave away his property and slept out doors, because the Saviour had not where to lay his head."

Witness was asked if such persons would feel any apprehensions of bodily injury or would take any precautions to guard against danger?

He replied: "Inspiration always—Guiteau (interrupting)—"There are two kinds of insanity, Doctor, the crank insanity and the Abraham insanity. Tell us what you think of Abraham, Doctor."

Witness described what Miss Commonly called temporary insanity, where a man commits an act which is the only act of insanity, and where a person is in appearance perfectly sane in all respects, both before and after the act.

Guiteau—That's just my case exactly.

Witness—I don't believe in such insanity, and in all my experience have never seen an instance of it.

Corkhill—Doctor, we had a young man here from Chicago, an agnostic, who testified that one person in every five is insane. What would you say to that?

Scoville asked to have the question read by the reporter, and sharply rebuked the District Attorney for persistent attempts to injure his character and cast aspersions upon the witnesses for the defense. "I don't care," he continued, "to be continually objecting to such matters, but he may continue to do so if he chooses. We will wait till we get to the jury."

Corkhill—Well then suppose you wait.

The witness thought a person acting under an inspiration to commit certain deeds would not be deterred from the commission of that act through any consideration of personal harm to another, over rides all fear of bodily pain and injury, and renders a person, who believes he is acting under an inspiration, wholly oblivious to such considerations.

The witness was asked if such persons usually planned with deliberation.

He replied—No. On the contrary, their acts are sudden both in conception and execution as a rule, and they seldom attempt to avoid consequences in anyway. Persons—Guiteau breaking in—Oh, you are talking about cranks now. I don't belong to that school.

The witness then proceeded to state length to give reasons for his opinion, using the expression: "I have frequently noticed that his (Guiteau's) most violent interruptions have been made when the weight of the evidence has been against him.

Counsel for the defense objected to the witness usurping the functions of the jury, who alone could pass upon the fact that evidence was for, or against, the prisoner.

The Court overruled the objection, and an exception was noted by the defense.

Guiteau, who had kept unusually quiet all through the morning, here addressed the witness, speaking without any show of excitement:

You are making a great ado over nothing, doctor. I don't pretend I'm insane now. Tell us what you know about Abraham, get your money, and go home.

Witness (continuing)—I closely analyzed the conduct and remarks of the prisoner during the trial and concluded he had been playing a part ever since the first day of the trial. He said the prisoner directed all his abuse against one of the counsel at the outset, but afterwards against all of them.

Guiteau—Well, you see, Doctor, Corkhill has corrupted the rest of them. "Evil communication" you know, "corrupts good manners."

The first hypothetical question of the prosecution was read, and an objection made by the defense to the clause: "Assume that he raised an axe to strike his sister,"—which the prisoner himself denies—on the ground that the witness could not be asked to pass upon a hypothetical question containing two propositions diametrically opposite.

After an argument and the Court sustaining the objection, the prosecution modified their question, and the modified form was put to the witness.

Witness—I believe the prisoner to have been sane. An objection to the question, and the reply was noted by the defense.

Judge Cox will be heard.

NEW YORK, December 27.

A Tribune's Washington special says: Judge Cox said today: "I am aware my course has been severely criticized, but I feel that it would not be proper for me to say anything in reply. When the right time comes I shall be heard."

"It is charged that you have been too lenient with Guiteau; that he has been allowed to have his own way too much," said the reporter.

"The last is true. It is the most remarkable case I ever heard of, but it would not be right for me to seek vindication through the newspapers. I think in the end, however, every one will be satisfied. It has been a most difficult case to handle."

Judge Cox seemed to be fully aware of the general feeling of discontent at his treatment of the assassin, but intimated that the end of the trial would furnish his vindication.

What Alexander H. Stephens Thinks.

NEW YORK, December 27.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent interviewed Alexander H. Stephens on the subject of the Inter-Oceanic canal, who said: "The Inter-Oceanic transit is one of the very highest national and international consequences, and it will undoubtedly engage the attention of congress to a great extent. It is of paramount importance that we should not allow Great Britain, France or any other European power to acquire ascendancy over any part of this continent. I think it would be wise for Congress at once charter Nicaragua Canal Co., the one in which General Grant is interested."

A Terrible Explosion.

RICHMOND, Va., December 27.

News was received here this morning from West Point of a terrible disaster to the steamer West Point of the Clyde line, plying between that point and Baltimore. The West Point arrived at West Point early yesterday, and a gang of men began to discharge her cargo. They cleared out all the freight between decks and had gone below into the hold to take out a quantity of kerosene oil, when at ten minutes past 12, midday, an explosion occurred which blew off the side of the vessel and set fire to the ship. Nineteen persons perished.

Another Thief Confesses.

NILES CITY, December 27.

C. H. Gould, the new receiver from Lincoln, Nebraska, has arrived and reopened the land office. A special agent sent here found a shortage of two thousand dollars in the accounts of the late receiver, T. P. McOrath, and got him to sign a confession. McOrath commanded a battery during the war, and is the son of a former partner of Horace Greely.

A Christmas Stab.

NEW YORK, December 27.

Four persons were stabbed in an affray yesterday afternoon. One will die from the effect of his wounds.

Something of Siberia.

NEW YORK, December 27.

A Herald St. Petersburg special says: To arrive at the mouth of the Lena, the crew of the shipwrecked Jeannette must have passed between New Siberia and the island of Fadyskai, which is inhabited only during the summer months by Nomads, who arrive at the close of the winter in sledges drawn by dogs. Further on in her course was Little-Petite and the island of Stalboval. The distance is about five hundred miles from the locality of the shipwreck to the mouth of the Lena. These months are situated in the most dreary and desolate confines of Northern Siberia. The whole coast was last visited and described by Lieutenant Zerkov Anjole in 1823. Previous to that, these vast regions, occupying a distance of hundreds of miles along the coast, were explored in 1733-36 by Lieutenant Prontschischeff, and at their further extremities by Lieutenant Dmitri Lapteff in 1739. The place where boat No. 3 landed is between the graves of Lieutenant Lassinus, who perished in 1735, with thirty-five of his companions, and that of Lieutenant Prontschischeff and his wife, who perished in 1736. From this point to Yakutsk the distance is more than a thousand miles through a desert country completely destitute of population.

Cursedness in a Grave-Yard.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Dec. 27.

Vandals broke in the old cemetery at Hampton yesterday, and broke, or overturned nearly fifty grave stones. Two young fellows named McMorris and Maloney have been arrested.

DIED.

WARNER—At the County Hospital, Dec. 24, August Warner, a native of Germany, aged 54 years.

JOTTINGS.

Loomis discounts the trade. Look at Loomis' show window. Armure lining for 15c at Loomis. The Good Templars meet to-night. Fur-trimmed gloves for 50 cents at Loomis. The telegraph office at Washoe has been closed. Loomis is selling the balance of his millinery goods at cost. The Carson Index has taken to poetry "Jesus Hell His Peace" is the latest. Riverside dance to-night. Go early for dancing will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. A lot of household goods will be sold at auction on Saturday next at P. J. Toll's auction store. See advt. George Linsinger has sold the Nevada Market to Jones and Wilson, both energetic men and bound to do well. A nice frame house in a good location is offered for sale with furniture, carpets, etc., also two horses. Advertising pays. The Lassen Advocate, a good local paper, addresses itself to GAZETTE readers in another column, and solicits their business. George Peter Argers is taking boarders. The latest one weighs 11 pounds. It is a boy. It arrived last Saturday. S. S. Mason, Atlanta City, N. J., after a full experience, says: "St. Jacobs Oil is the best thing I know of to use for sprains, sores, bruises, and similar troubles among horses." Cholevich and Co.'s Christmas layout was first-class. The Wine House is well up in all the details when it comes to Christmas drinks. The board of school trustees met today and voted to open the schools January 3rd. The same teachers will be continued. Plain dress goods, 12 1/2, 15, 20 and 25 cents per yard—about half their value. Send for samples to Hale Bros. & Co., corner Ninth and K streets, Sacramento. It would surprise you to know the price at which we are selling ladies' mens' and childrens' boots. Send for our catalogue and price list. Hale Bros. & Co., corner of Ninth and K streets, Sacramento. Parties wishing to make New Year presents can purchase the same at Nasby's Bazaar at cost, as he is determined to close out his holiday goods. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—36, 49, 52, 54, 53. Huffer's Style. A dramatic entertainment and social dance was given at Huffer's last night. The whole affair was a pronounced success. Prof. Kaufman's band furnished the music for the dance and Huffer's school district provided the dramatic talent. A large number of Renosites were in attendance, all of whom agree that they do things up in style at Huffer's. Ante, Pat, Or Love the Game. The good people of Verdi put in Christmas day playing bean-poker for ducks. Twenty-five beans for twenty-five cents. One enterprising business man of that sprightly little town won three ducks, and they only cost him $7.25 per duck. Cheap enough when you take into consideration the egg-nog consumed. Fighting Hard. In the Simmona manslaughter case from Cedarville, Department No. 2, in the California Supreme Court disagreed, and the case will be reargued before the Supreme Court in bank. The only chance of a reversal is in a technicality, not on the merits of the case. Good Business. Merchants say that their Christmas trade was from ten to twenty-five per cent more than ever before. Twenty-five thousand dollars was spent here for Christmas presents. Not a bad showing for a small town. A Father's Testimony. CHESTON, Ia., May 21, 1881. H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirs—My little son has been cured of weak kidneys by the use of your Safe Kidney and Liver cure. M. C. BYRNER. Notes from the North. In Surprise valley the weather is cold and clear. The roads are good. What best cattle are there are feeding well.

THE HARVEST ENDED.

The Ice Houses Filled and the Men Paid Off—Cost of the Crop, etc. This has been a favorable winter as the ice companies on the upper end of the river have ever had for their business. They have had cold weather to freeze, and clear, mild weather to save it in. A critical time is just when the ice is ready to cut and when everything is ready to begin. If there is no rain or snow storm sets in a week or two are sufficient to do all the work, but if it begins to storm or a thaw sets in, nothing can be done and the crop may be a total loss. This year about 200 men were employed for three weeks, and the cost of the work is estimated at $15,000. Well informed parties say that the quantity put up has been greatly overestimated by the papers. It is not thought that over 80,000 tons, all told, have been saved, divided about as follows: Prosser Creek 15,000, Boca 6,000, People's Company at Cuba 6,000, Mountain Ice Company at Cuba 1,500 and the Boca-Brewing Company 1,500. The Boca Company had a contract with the Central Pacific to load 1,600 tons on their cars at $1 a ton. They loaded about 1,400. Ice costs about fifty cents a ton to put up, to load on the cars perhaps twenty-five cents more under the most favorable circumstances. The freight to San Francisco is $7 a ton, so that a close estimate would make the cost in San Francisco $8 a ton. The Prosser Creek Company finished work on Saturday night and paid off their men Sunday morning. The Boca Company paid off Saturday. Part of the men went west and the rest came to Reno.

A Missionary.

The overland train this morning sailed proudly away, bearing the precious form of Senator Powning, who goes to Washington loaded down with important business for the State. His principal business has been stated by the Journal to be an effort to prevent the discontinuance of the mail route to Bidwell. Senator Jones assured all who talked with him here that it would be managed, but Mr. Ayers, who is half owner, felt fearful, and thought some effort might be necessary. The route costs the Government $49,000 and the firm who operate it only get $20,000, and it is only right for everyone here to do their best to keep the route on at a fair price. The Star Route contractors get more than half for doing nothing, and the people here will be deprived of the route on account of economy. Mr. Powning will do something towards getting the office of Surveyor-General moved from Virginia to Reno, and it is hinted that if there is to be any change in the Carson Mint he may want the office of Superintendent himself.

Better Late Than Never.

In the list of Reno business houses in Saturday's issue the GAZETTE omitted the mention of one of the largest and best firms in the State—that of Abrahams Brothers, proprietors of the White House. The firm carries one of the largest and best stocks of goods of any house on this coast, and being wealthy and well posted, know just how to take advantage of the market. Prices are marked low, and anything in the line of men and boys clothing, gents furnishing goods, hats, caps, etc., can be found at the White House.

The Last Wood at Washoe.

P. N. Marker has about 10,000 cords of wood in the woods above Washoe, to run out. Nearly all of this is cut and ready to be flumed. That will end Washoe City. The flume will be sold for fire-wood or fencing, for any price it will bring, and the store and office will be closed. Mr. Marker has made piles of money in Washoe, and the old town has seen high life in its day, but nothing is left of it but brick walls and memories.

Where Will It End?

The women are now making shams for the towel rack, as well as for pillows and sheets. This latest invention of the enemy is a wide piece of embroidery to be thrown over the towels that are in use. It will be a pleasant surprise to the loving husband to find that after he has wet his hands he cannot get at the towel. This thing may lead to bloodshed unless it is stopped.

School for Girls.

The next term of Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls will begin on Thursday, January 5th. The Bishop will have charge of the school as Principal and a lady from the east is expected to arrive shortly to take Miss Anna Sill's place. The Rev. Mr. Jenvey, Miss Quiffie, Miss Carlin and Miss Chester will retain their respective positions.

Revenge is Sweet.

A gentleman recently approached the proprietor of a sage brush sheet, and said to him: "There is a fellow out in my neighborhood who has served me a mean trick, and I want to pay him back. I want you to send him the Weekly — for a year." The paper is going, and the poor man is inquiring when will the asylum be ready for victims.

What Was It?

A few nights ago five persons living four miles from Cedarville, Modoc county, were the victims of a singular delusion. L. C. Bacheider and wife in one house and George Calborne, a hired man, and a boy in another house a quarter of a mile away, were awakened at three o'clock in the morning by the sound of bells. They all got up and came outside of their houses and listened to the noise, and all believed it was the church bell in Cedarville ringing for a fire. They watched for the blaze until they could stand the cold no longer and went to bed. Mr. Calborne drove in and would hardly believe that no bells had been rung. There are no other large bells in the valley.

He Remembered Them.

Senator James G. Fair made his usual Christmas donations to the State orphans at Carson, and the convicts at the prison. He sent the prisoners three barrels of crushed sugar, two boxes of tobacco, one box of pipes, five boxes of apples and five cases of canned fruit. Senator Fair always remembers the unfortunate. He is looked upon as a "mildoon" by the convicts. If the Senator should open up a democratic convention within the prison gates he would sweep the board. It would be straight up.

Masonic Installation.

The following gentlemen will be installed as officers of Reno Lodge No. 13, F. & A. M., this evening: F. H. Wischell, W. M.; Allen C. Bragg, S. W.; J. K. Everett, J. W.; T. K. Hymers, Treasurer; Henry L. Fish, Secretary; C. S. Varian, S. D.; Ben Jaynes, J. D.; H. Ruhe and D. D. Brown, Stewards; W. A. Walker, Marshall, and N. C. Haslund, Tyler. After the installation a collation will be served in the new lodge banquet hall. Members are requested to be on hand early.

New Directory.

Frederick Bagot placed a copy of McKenny's Pacific Coast Business Directory on our table this morning. It is a very useful book, being conveniently arranged and reliable. It is well bound, nicely printed and cheap. It contains all the inhabitants of the towns in California, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado and Nebraska, with some interesting facts about each. It is published by H. S. Crocker & Co., Sacramento, in their usual workmanlike manner.

A Terrible Accident.

A Frenchman named David Maahan was struck on the head Sunday evening at Prosser Creek by two heavy cakes of ice that were running to the ice house. The blood spirted from his eyes and ears and nose. Dr. Curless was brought down to attend him. He thinks he will recover.

Don't Forget.

The States hat is the best, consequently Abrahams Bros. keep a large stock. You make a mistake when you fail to purchase clothing at the White House.

PERSONAL.

Ira Kent, county Clerk of Churchill county, is in town.

J. V. Logan, of Boca, was in town yesterday.

Our steamed friend, F. F. Fowler, was at Steamboat yesterday for the first time.

Joe N. Barlow, who has hosts of friends in Reno, has gone to Soda Springs, on the C. & C. road, as agent and operator.

R. F. McConaughy, Fort Bidwell, has just returned from a visit to his native State, Kentucky. He leaves for his northern home in the morning.

How the Money Comes In.

State Controller Hallock is now busy making his semi annual settlements with the various counties. The following have been settled: Churchill $3,312 79; Douglas $6,630, Humboldt $24,645 81, Lincoln $4,393 97, Lyon $9,815 13, Ormsby $19,922 51, Washoe $33,333 11, White Pine $8,055, Lander $30,861 43, Esmeralda $13,487 90. The following counties remain to be settled, which will doubtless be effected during the coming week: Eureka $30,328 39, Elko $24,988 77; Nye $8,140 21, Storey $39,273 05.

Litigation in Churchill.

A water suit comes up on the 23d, of next month at Stillwater between the farmers on the upper sink of the Humboldt and McGee and Bailey. McGee shut off the water in the Cushman ditch and run it to his and Bailey's ranch. This left the ranches owned by Whiteman, Grimes and Dillard with no moisture in the latter part of the season. Ellis and Allen are attorneys for the farmers, and General Kittrell for McGee.

Discouraged and Worn Out.

Otto Greenhood, of the Carson Appeal, has about made up his mind to leave Carson. The saloons have of late set free lunches, and found a salve very handy, but hard times and a deserted village forces them to discontinue with both. The Appeal gives no reason for Greenhood's sudden flight. Drop in my boy as you pass along, Reno will treat you like an honest man.

Take Notice.

Clem Berry, the meanest "nigger" in the world, has been sentenced to serve sixty days in Carson's tramp trap for disturbing the peace and quiet of that remote little village. Unless the people of Carson keep Clem where he belongs—in jail—or kill him, the next Legislature will remove the Capitol to Reno.

Christmas Carols.

Miss Quiffie and the Episcopal Church choir loaded an organ in for a wagon and went serenading on Christmas morning early. At each house where they stopped an evergreen wreath was hung on the door. It was a clear, calm, beautiful morning, and the sweet music woke the sleepers in a delightful way.

29 and 31.....Virginia St. Reno

In last year's racing in England Archer heads the list of winning jockeys, scoring 219 wins. This number falls far short of his extraordinary performance in 1878. His biggest hit was on Iroquois in the Derby and St. Leger, and on Wood in the Royal Hunt Cup. C. Wood stands second. Cannon came third, with 77 wins out of 287 mounts. Fordham and Barrett tie for fourth place, and Watts has won his spurs by bringing in Foxhall for the Cambridgeshire, and is now accepted as a leading horseman.

Pearl Reed dropped her hair, put on male attire, and went across the line into Canada last Fourth of July to celebrate our national holiday in the foreign city of Kingston. She got noisily drunk, broke some windows, and was sent to prison for two years. She bore the punishment without complaint or discovery until a few days ago, when she confessed her sex, and sent a petition to the Governor-General for pardon.

At the head of the last issue of Narrator a Vox the organ of the active Nihilists, is a black-bordered tribute to General Garfield, whose death seems to have made a great impression on the writers, and to have led their thoughts toward democratic institutions on the American pattern.

Miss Sarah Bernhardt's ill-treatment at the hands of her anti-Semitic assailants in the south of Russia does not appear to have had any prejudicial effect on the pecuniary success of her tour. The receipts of four nights at Odessa and two at Kieff amounted to $17,500.

The New York Sun says there have been so many encroachments by homesteaders on the public timber lands between Wyoming and Duluth, Minn., that the Government has sent agents through the country to make up cases of trespass.

The Journal Des Debates says that in Paris vitrol throwing is played out, and that the knife is now the jealous woman's implement or revenge.

GENTLEMEN: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it on general principles, as a system and liver regulator; I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to the doctor's remedies, or any other, until I used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. We both unite in pronouncing it to be the best medicine ever used, and in recommending it to all who are in need of it.

GENTLEMEN: I have been a sufferer, and until your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was suggested I have not known what relief was to be had. My family physician attributed all my suffering to a diseased condition of my kidneys, and after he had failed to give relief, I tried your remedy, and am a well man to-day.
